Devotees carry an idol of Lord Ganesh during a procession of 'Chintamani Ganpati' ahead of the Ganesh Chaturthi festival, in Mumbai on Saturday

Yerwada prison inmates prepare eco-friendly idols of Lord Ganesh

PUNE: Inmates of the Yerwada Central Prison in Maharashtra's Pune have carved out beautiful and eco-friendly idols of Lord Ganesh which are attracting a large number of people to purchase them. According to authorities, this is the first time that inmates of this central prison have prepared these idols which are kept for sale at the jail industry retail shop where products such as wooden furniture, carpets, linens, chappals, artefacts and clothing, made by the prisoners are displayed. "Every year, Lord Ganesh idols are made by the inmates at the Nashik Central Prison. This is the first time that the Yerwada Central Jail has started this project and roped in two inmate artists from the Nashik prison. They trained 15 inmates from the Yerawada jail on idol making," said Rani Bhosale, Superintendent, Yerwada Central Prison.

Doctors, security personnel deployed for stone-pelting festival in Chhindwara

CHHINDWARA: A team of doctors and medical staff has been deployed for the "Gotmar" (stone pelting) festival, which began in a village of MP's Chhindwara district on Saturday, an official said. People have lost their lives and many were injured in the past during this traditional annual event held at Pandhurna in the district. Security personnel have been deployed in the area and a team of more than five doctors has also been pressed into service for the event, additional superintendent of police (ASP) Sanjeev Ukey said. Drones will be used and cameras will be installed to keep a watch over the venue, where sec 144 of the Criminal Procedure Code (CrPC) has been imposed, he said.

Indian Army begins construction of Bailey Bridge to restore traffic on highway

NAGPUR: The Indian Army has started the construction of 90-feet-long Bailey Bridge over Sukhtawa river, which collapsed in April due to heavy vehicular traffic, an official said on Saturday. As per an official release, the engineers of Sudarshan Chakra Corps of the Southern Command, who were mobilised from Bhopal, commenced the construction of the bridge on Bhopal-Nagpur National Highway 46 near Narmadapuram. The 145-year-old bridge had collapsed in April due to heavy vehicle traffic, and the state administration had requisitioned the Army to construct bridge and restore traffic, it was stated. Meanwhile, a diversion built to sustain heavy traffic on Sukhtawa river also got submerged multiple times amid heavy rains, thus cutting off the crucial lifeline.

FIR filed against editor, owner of Rajkot newspaper for article on CM's removal

RAJKOT: A First Information Report (FIR) has been registered against the editor and owner of a newspaper here for publishing a write-up which hinted at the possible removal of Gujarat Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel due to the BJP leadership's 'unhappiness'. The FIR was registered two days ago under Indian Penal Code sections 505(1)(b) (offending act likely to induce a person to commit offence against State or public tranquillity) and 505 (2) (circulating or publishing report containing rumour or alarming news with intent to create feelings of enmity, hatred or ill-will), police said. The article with the headline 'Goodbye Bhupendraji, Welcome Rupala' was published in the August 22 edition of the 'Saurashtra Headline', a Rajkot-based eveninger.

Loco pilots' timely action saves lives of 12 elephants in Jharkhand

MEDININAGAR (JHARKHAND): Timely action by two loco pilots saved the lives of a dozen elephants including calves in Palamu Tiger Reserve (PTR) in Jharkhand, officials said on Saturday. The Howrah-Jabalpur Shaktipunj Express was bound for West Bengal through a dense forest in PTR at a speed of around 70 kmph around 6 PM on Friday when suddenly the locomotive pilots noticed a herd of elephants crossing the tracks between Chipadohar and Hehegara railway stations, they said. "Loco pilot A K Vidyarthi and I swiftly pulled the emergency brake and the train stopped around 60 metres from the herd," Rajnikant Choubey, assistant loco pilot, told PTI. "We felt a sense of satisfaction after saving the lives of at least 12 elephants," he added.

CM, ruling MLAs leave for unknown destination in 3 buses

PTI, RANCHI: Amid the deepening political crisis in Jharkhand due to the uncertainty over Chief Minister Hemant Soren's fate as an MLA, Soren and ruling legislators were seen leaving for some unknown destination on three buses.

JHARKHAND POLITICAL CRISIS

A bus carrying Jharkhand UPA MLAs leaves from the residence of CM Hemant Soren after a meeting, amid speculation of his disqualification, in Ranchi on Saturday

The three buses were occupied by the legislators of the ruling JMM-Congress-RJD coalition and guarded by security personnel.

Sources said the legislators are being shifted to a "friendly state", which could either be West Bengal or Chhattisgarh. Both states have non-BJP governments.

The development took place soon after a marathon third round of a meeting of legislators of the ruling alliance at the chief minister's residence to chalk out a strategy to deal with the emerging scenario.

The ruling MLAs took part in the meeting along with their luggage.

State Rural Development and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Alamgir Alam claimed the MLAs were going for a "picnic at Mouwots Resort in Latratu in neighbouring Khunti district".

Incidentally, Alam had on Friday said that the MLAs of the ruling alliance cannot be poached and will stay in Ranchi.

Another minister, Banna Gupta, also claimed that the MLAs were going to Latratu and would return by evening.

Congress legislator Deepika Pandey Singh said it was a "break for refreshment". Another MLA, Shilpi Neha Tirkey, said, "We will follow the directions of the party."

A Congress source had earlier said that all arrangements have been made to pack the coalition legislators in either Chhattisgarh or West Bengal.

The source said three locations in Chhattisgarh, including Barmuda and Raipur, and some places in West Bengal have been identified.

"All ruling MLAs will be sent to a single destination if the need arises," another source said.

Ex-bureaucrats urge CJI to reverse release of 11 culprits by Gujarat Govt

Team Herald

NEW DELHI: A group of retired bureaucrats, who served the nation as IAS, PS and IPS officers, on Saturday wrote an open letter to the Chief Justice of India as the Constitutional Conduct Group (CCG) to reverse the Gujarat government's decision to set free 11 men convicted and jailed in the ghastly case of gang rape of 5-month pregnant 19-year old Bilkis Bano and murder of her family members in the riots that took place in Gujarat in 2002 outraging the nation.

The Supreme Court is to hear a PIL against the culprits' release after two weeks and probably the case will be listed before new CJI Uday Umesh Lalit as the previous CJI Ramana had issued a 2-week notice to the state government.

The Supreme Court is to hear a PIL against the culprits' release after two weeks and probably the case will be listed before new CJI Uday Umesh Lalit as the previous CJI Ramana had issued a 2-week notice to the state government

"We write to you because we are deeply distressed by this decision of the Government of Gujarat and because we believe that it is only the Supreme Court which has the prime jurisdiction, and hence the responsibility, to rectify this horrendously wrong decision," reads the 4-page letter.

The CCG members said they have no affiliation with any political party, but committed to the values enshrined in the Constitution and the judicial process that is protected by it.

The signatories include former foreign secretary Sujatha Singh, former NSAC secretary general PDD Thomas, former secretary National Commission for Minorities Tirlochan Singh, former Social Justice and Empowerment secretary Anita Agnihotri, former Rajasthan chief secretary Salahuddin Ahmad, former Punjab DGP Mohinder Pal Aulakh, former Punjab chief secretary Ramesh Inder Singh, and others.

Ex-CJI Ramana in dock for business deals

Team Herald

NEW DELHI: Former Supreme Court Chief Justice N V Ramana is in the dock for soliciting business for an arbitration centre set up on the outskirts of Hyderabad last December while holding the top judicial position for commercial disputes and securing for it 5 acres of land worth Rs 250 crore at the Hi-Tech city.

As many as 65 legal professionals have urged the Centre just as Ramana retired for a probe by the Comptroller and Auditor General (CAG) for his role in the "misuse of public funds and assets by Telangana government, overlooking procedure and propriety."

Final check-ups on, just towers and exploder need to be connected

PTI, NOIDA: The final check-up of explosives and related arrangements for demolition of Supertech's illegal twin towers in Noida were underway on Saturday, project officials said here.

TWIN TOWER DEMOLITION

All work related to placement of explosives and connecting them is already complete. The only element remaining was interconnecting the twin towers and placing a 100-metre-long cable from the structures to the exploder, from where the button would be pressed on Sunday, they said.

Over 3,700 kg explosives will be used to raze down the nearly 100-metre-tall structures – taller than Delhi's iconic Qutub Minar – in pursuance of a Supreme Court order that found their construction within the Emerald Court society premises in violation of norms.

Around 5,000 residents of Emerald Court and adjoining ATS Village societies have to vacate their premises by 7 am on Sunday while also removing nearly 3,000 vehicles and taking away 150-200 pets, including cats and dogs, with them for the day.

"Once that is done and all teams get down from the buildings, the two buildings Apex and Cryone, have to be inter-connected. After that a 100-metre-long cable would be run from the towers to the exploder to demolish the buildings," Edifice Engineering's project manager Mayur Mehta said.

BJP has spent Rs 6,300 crore on toppling govts of other parties, claims Kejriwal

PTI, NEW DELHI: Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal on Saturday claimed that the Centre did not have to impose GST on food items if the BJP had not spent a whopping Rs 6,300 crore on toppling governments of other parties in the country.

Kejriwal's remarks come a day after he called the BJP a "serial killer of state governments".

During his address in the Delhi Assembly, Kejriwal also alleged that the BJP is using money collected through GST and hike in petrol and diesel prices to "poach" the MLAs.

The Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) national convenor on Saturday also alleged that the people are facing the brunt of price rise with the BJP spending crores of rupees on 'poaching' other parties' MLAs and bringing down their governments in states.

In a tweet in Hindi, Kejriwal said the Goods and Services Tax (GST) that has been imposed on curd, buttermilk, honey, wheat, rice etc., will fetch Rs 7,500 crore revenue per annum to the central government.

"They have spent Rs 6,300 crore so far on toppling governments. They would not have had to impose GST on wheat, rice, buttermilk etc. if they had not toppled governments. People do not have to face inflation," he claimed.

The political slugfest between the AAP and the BJP has intensified since the CBI registered a case against Delhi Deputy Chief Minister Manish Sisodia and others for alleged irregularities in implementation of the Excise policy on the Lieutenant Governor V K Saxena's recommendation.

The probe agency raided Sisodia's residence in the capital and 30 other locations in the country in connection with the case on August 19.

The AAP alleged that the Centre put the CBI after Sisodia to dent his image by implicating him in a "fake" case as the the BJP is "terrified" by the growing popularity of Kejriwal.

Azad certain to form new party within a fortnight

Team Herald

NEW DELHI: Veteran leader Ghulam Nabi Azad (73), who quit the Congress after 49 years of association assured the former J&K MLAs calling on him at his residence here on Saturday that he will launch his new party within a fortnight, with its first unit in Jammu and Kashmir.

His confidant G M Saroori told reporters here that Azad assured him to incorporate reinstation of the pre-August 5, 2019 position of Jammu and Kashmir will be the party of the party's manifesto.

He said Azad is going to Jammu on September 4 to hold consultations with his well-wishers before launching the new party.
